About us

Brand foundation: Overdrive

Category: Energy drink

Core value: Unleashing Gaming Synergy & High-octane vitality

Overdrive is a cyberpunk energy drink designed to electrify the gaming community. Through a futuristic, high-octane visual style, it awakens the power within every gamer bridging the gap between digital triumph and real-world stamina.

Why i chose this design is because it uses the neon accent colors that accentuate cyberpunk the lettertype is chosen because it looks chaotic and it kind off gives a space/gamer vibe therefore it matches how i represent this can. it is mostly designer for gamers that want to awaken their powers after drinking this energy can. The moodboard is made out of vibrant colors and a lot of different colors, it has glitches in it and alot of borders with neon colors. The sketches are mostly my design process and what i wanted in it as in the characters that are drawn. only the girl is used because that gave the most gamer vibe and was highly liked by people who voted between the two

Dit is meer dan een drankje; dit is een visuele identiteit in vloeibare vorm.

Waarschuwing.

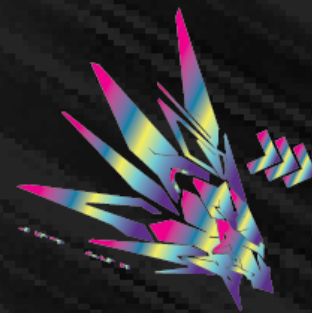

Overmatige consumptie kan leiden tot een drang om alles te herontwerpen, een obsessie met stijl- en grid-systemen en het ongevraagd geven van feedback op posters in de stad.
